From: $412.45

Meet the threat

SKU: 88-108-01

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Mojo® High Threat Kit (HTK) is an advanced, comprehensive kit designed to treat multiple casualties in a high threat environment. This kit is ideal for active shooter response and high risk warrants. It uses MARCH™ medical gear, which is a user-friendly, trauma treatment system distinctly packaged with color-coded icon identifiers to treat the five leading causes of preventable death following traumatic injury. The Mojo® High Threat Kit comes in an ergonomic, clamshell design for easy access and has an adjustable waist band as well as two MOLLE positions for attaching additional equipment. The High Threat Kit is available in both black and red, and is offered in three different content configurations to accommodate the needs of your department.
